Whenever her business men learn that advertising business in newspapers is the life of trade and do it, we papers is the life of trade and do it, we shall begin to have hope that "the dead to which forty minutes are given. will rise from the grave.'

Students were coming in several days betion this year.

The coroner's jury in the Finch murder case in Chatham county, have returned a verdict that Edward Finch, and Sally Finch, two very old people, and were murdered on the morning of the 4th of July last, came to their deaths at | ing appointments as his aids: the hands of Jerry Finch, Harriet Finch and Lee Tyson, all negroes, and other party or parties to the Jury unknown. We mention this to show that the bloodhounds of justice, if slow, are generally sure, though the quarry is often after-wards snatched away from them.

The row at a negro church in Waynesville ten or more days ago, in which two or three negroes were cut, now appears in the Northern papers duly credited under a telegraph head from Waynesville as a fresh piece of news; and, ignoring altogether the race of the parties, is intended to convey the impression that the affair transpired among the whites, and was a typical picture of Southern society. Mr. Brown will hardly recognize himself

THE KITCHEN GARDEN ASSOCIATION. We received the report of this association several days ago, but our columns have been so necessarily crowded that we have not been able to find room for it. With the deepest interest in the objects of the association, we are compelled in the use of the report to notice only the sabient power. The spirited ladies of Asheville who have so generously devoted their time, labor and experience to the work most magnanimously publicly express their sense of the efficient aid and counsel of Miss Boyd of New York.

HANDSOME AND GOOD WORK.

VanGilder and Brown have just had out up on the outside of their large store building an iron stair case, which is as ornamental as it will be useful. It is strongly supported by brackets and foot pieces, and is as substantial as the mountains. It will give access to an excellent series of office rooms which of late could not conveniently be reached. (The famous Stage Driver of the Merras.) These rooms were once fully occupied, two by the CITIZEN, one by the Mayor, another by a justice of the peace, but for a year or more have been idle. Now they will come at once into use.

FANCHON, THE CRICKET, TO BE RE-PEATED TO-NIGHT. Miss Katie Firmin's benefit was well attended last night, and her patrons were well repaid in witnessing a charming performance, Fanchon is one of those analytical compositions of domestic life for which the Germans show so much aptitude. It is prose poem. If you may read a sermon in the sound of running brooks, why not a whole volume in the inception of love that goes to unite man and woman and create a race, when that union is effected at the expense of worldly wisdom, but fortified by morality's virtue, yeuthful strength and vigor. Miss Annie Pirmin, as Fanchon, showed another phase of her dramatic eminence. Wm. Harcourt as as Fanchon, showed another phase of her dramatic eminence. Wm. Harcourt as Laundry advanced in the esteem of his admirers; while Geo. C. Denton as the admirers; while Geo. C. Denton as the Milksop Didier surprised all by the great humor he displays in the part. Of course John Jack as old Barbeaud was a picture of virile age and helped the evening fun. Mr. Greer appeared to better advantage, and Miss Katie Firmin seemed ubiquitant as she appeared in every scene, "Ye fool ish girls" and the shadow dance at the end of the first act was a decided hit. To oblige some who could not attend last night, Fanchon will be repeated to-night. The Hall should be filled to-morrow night.
